*This research was generously supported by the UCSB Pahl Initiative on Critical Social Issues and the Manhattan Institute. For comments, we thank David Broockman, Charlotte Cavaillé, Katie Einstein, Bob Ellickson, Michael Hankinson, Dan Hopkins, Michael Manville, Eric McGhee, Julia Payson, Shane Phillips, David Schleicher, Dominik Stecula, Chris Tausanovitch, Jessica Trounstein, and attendees at the SoCal Political Economy Workshop, the American Political Science Association Annual Meeting (2022), and the Consortium on the American Political Economy. This paper also benefited tremendously from the Aletheia platform's public-domain peer review process. Finally, we thank Alfred Twu, who drew the illustrations used in one of our surveys, and the numerous undergraduate research assistants who helped test and discuss survey instruments.
